NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

An important meeting soon to be held at Washington. The first triennial meeting of the National Council of Women of the United States, which will be held in Washington from Feb. 23 to 25, is expected to bring together the largest representative body of women ever assembled.

WORLD'S FAIR LADY MANAGERS.

Opinions divided about the woman's exhibit at the World's Fair. There are people who carp and kick to use the vernacular, against anything and everything under the sun; not because they have any particular objection to it, but simply for the sake of kicking, and therefore it is not surprising that the request made by the president of the board of lady managers, Mrs. Palmer, for a separate building on the Chicago Lake Front in which to display a portion of the woman's exhibit has encountered a veritable storm of opposition.

PEANUTS.

ROASTED EVERY DAY. The plan given by a Georgia Correspondent in the Boston Herald is a very simple one. I am using a tripod three legs long at top on hinges so that the legs can be spread out or drawn up at pleasure. A high chair, to be of convenient height, is placed on the tripod, and the legs are hinged together, the part above the hinge is a half inch hole round in the center of the tripod, and the center of the tripod is a half inch hole round in the center of the tripod.
